No. 19 of 26.03.2025

Operational Plan of Institutional Development

UNITBV

2025

Preamble:

Transilvania University of Braşov is an accredited state higher-education institution, which operates under its current name based on the Order of the Ministry of Education and Science no. 4894/ 23.03.1991. Its history begins in 1948, when the Institute of Silviculture was established in Braşov, under the Decree no. 175/1948 and the Ministerial Decision no. 263327/ 1948. Ever since, the university has continuously developed, and nowadays it is Romania's largest comprehensive university and the greatest and best-reputed higher-education institution in the Centre Development Region, where 21,711 students are learning, guided by 722 academic teaching personnel members (631 tenured and 91 on a fixed-term contract) in early 2024-2025 academic year.

For more than seven decades, since its establishment, the university has continuously developed, encompassing today 18 faculties, 31 departments, where 21,711 students (17,658 in the bachelor's education cycle, 3,505 in the master's study programmes, 548 in the doctoral fields, 596 in medical residency) are learning, guided by 722 academic teaching personnel members (631 tenured and 91 on a fixed-term contract), 488 adjunct academic teaching personnel members and 51 research scientists, along with 585 auxiliary-teaching and non-teaching staff members, in 98 bachelor's study programmes (81 full-time, respectively 17 part-time/distance-learning form of education), 84 master's study programmes (81 full-time and 3 part-time form of education) and 24 doctoral fields, with 207 doctoral supervisors.

The recent years have been, for Transilvania University of Braşov, a stage of institutional and financial consolidation, as well as of initiation or development of many processes specific to a performance-oriented university.

Given the university's institutional and financial situation, its structure and particularities, as well as the national and international context of the higher education and academic research, we dare say the university's enhanced educational and scientific performance, the development and diversification of its services offered to the academic community and society, as well as the university's higher level of internationalization are priorities in the coming period. Therefore, the objectives and implementation measures proposed for 2025 pursue these priority directions for Transilvania University of Braşov, in order to increase its performance and prestige nationally and internationally.
