Brief Description of Institution

Transilvania University of Brasov (UNITBV) is the largest public university in the central region of Romania, with more than 20.000 students and 742 full-time academic staff. Our students are enjoying the diversity and quality of the study programs (95+ bachelor programmes, 80+ master programmes, 24 PhD programmes), the beauty of Braşov city - a medieval town surrounded by mountains, in the heart of the country - and the vibrant and multicultural campus life.

Our educational offer promotes interdisciplinarity and reflects the comprehensive structure of the university, including undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in engineering, social sciences, humanities, arts, medicine, mathematics and sports. Our focus is on top performance in education, student international mobility, and the richness of students' social and cultural experience in campus.
